

General Same Sex Marriage Information

Effective May 15, 2008 11:45 a.m.

SUBJECT TO CHANGE

County Clerk Office Processing hours: 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

General Information about marriage in the State of California

- California residence is not a requirement to marry in California. The same requirements apply whether you are a U.S. Citizen or Foreigner.
- Two unmarried parties may marry in the State of California.
- Marriage by proxy is not allowed in California.

What do we need to be legally married?

1. Apply for and purchase a California marriage license at a California County Clerk Office in person, and
2. Have a ceremony on or after issue date (and before expiration date) of marriage license, and
3. Marriage solemnized by a person authorized by CA Family Code Section 400-402.

When will the County Clerk be able to issue marriage licenses to same-sex couples?

We currently do not know the exact date when the County Clerk's office will be able to start issuing marriage licenses to same-sex couples. There are additional steps that the lower courts must take before the Supreme Court's ruling can take effect. It will likely take at least 30 days. We will provide updates as soon as additional information becomes available.

Can same-sex couples schedule an appointment now to come in for a marriage license and ceremony?

This office does not require or accept appointments to obtain a marriage license. To have your ceremony in our chapel, you may schedule an appointment for a future date. However, because we do not yet know the exact date when the court's ruling will take final effect – and it will likely take at least 30 days – your appointment may expire prior to when we can issue a marriage license. Accordingly, you may wish to make an appointment until we know when the ruling will take effect. Please check www.smcare.org for updates. Appointment(s) may be rescheduled at least 3 days prior to your appointment date and appointments may not be rescheduled for more than 90 days from the original date of when you booked and paid for your appointment. NO REFUNDS.

How much does a marriage license cost?

A marriage license costs $78, payable in person by cash or debit. NO REFUNDS.

What if we are currently State Registered Domestic Partners?

You should consult a private attorney and/or the Secretary of State's Office.

When will the State prescribed forms be changed to reflect the Court's decision?

To be determined.

Can we get a marriage license anywhere else?

Yes. The court's decision is effective for the entire State of California.

When can we request and pay for a certified copy of our marriage certificate?

Upon receipt of a marriage license returned to the County Recorder, certified copies will be available for $13 each.
